GRAND JURY MAKES REPORT

After Sitting for Four Days Grand Jurors Find Eight True Bills and Present Indictments.-- Makes Final Report.

GRAND JURY ROASTS POLICE.

Recommends Dismissal of One Officer and that no Reinstatement be made where Officers are Guilty of Second Offense of Drunkenness.

CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION.

The Circuit Court of the Second Circuit opened its June term last week. The Trial Jury was not called until Monday of this week that unnecessary expense might be saved the Territory and that the representative of the Attorney Generals Department could attend both juries and give his assistance to each.

L. von Tempsky was chosen Foreman of the Grand Jury.

The charge of the court, aside from the usual formal parts was as follows:

It is your right and duty to investigate all matters relating to the administration of Territorial and County affairs, and on this head, I wish to call your special attention to the following:

It seems that an impression has gone abroad that elective officers are only responsible in the discharge of their duties to those who elect them, but you must remember, that as Grand Jurors, you are instructed by those very electors and the public at large with the vigilance that those duties are discharged faithfully and honestly.
Therefore I charge you, to carefully investigate and report upon the following matters, some of which are becoming notorious in this community. It has been noticeable the neglect of duty and lack of discipline on the part of several police officers of this town, some having time and again been suspended for drunkenness.

The deplorable condition of the streets of Wailuku should be a matter for your investigation.
The closing up of certain public roads by some of the plantations in this County should also have your attention.

The loose expenditure of public moneys should have full investigation by you, the lack of proper checking of vouchers, that is the lack of time given this matter by officials, should be looked into.

You have the right to summon before you any and all officials whom you have reason to believe can throw light upon any subject matter being investigated, with the books and papers of their office, and for this purpose you can divide yourselves into committees which should report to the main body, and the entire Grand Jury would then act upon the report.

The scope of your investigations is practically unlimited, as to matters touching upon Territorial and County affairs.

I wish to call the particular attention of this Grand Jury to the matter of the secrecy of your doings in the Grand Jury room. Matters which were deliberated upon by the Grand Jury at the last term, so I have been informed, and pat-icularly as to how certain members had voted upon certain matters which were passed upon by them, was given out by one or more of its members. I charge you that it is a very flagrant violation of the law for any Grand Juror to divulge such matters, and this Court will not hesitate to visit with serious consequences such violation. The reason for this secrecy is apparent.
It is not easy to influence the action of the Grand Jury if the people outside are ignorant of what is going on in the Grand Jury room, but it is quite certain that in case any of your acts should be made public, attempts would be made to influence you. In case any person or persons should approach you for the purpose of influencing your actions, such conduct should be immediately reported to the Court.

Each witness and all interpreters should be admonished to keep inviolate what transpires in his presence in your deliberations.

I trust that you will conscientiously with the importance of matters brought before you, carry out your work expeditiously and as economically as possible.

In order to obtain good results from investigations of Grand Jurors I instruct you that you acquaint yourselves with the findings and recommendations of any former Grand Jury, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not such findings and recommendations have been carried out.

The Court then appointed L. von Tempsky as foreman.

The Jury sat from day to day and made their final report on Saturday and were discharged for the term.

Their report is as follows:
In the Circuit Court of the Second Circuit, Territory of Hawaii June 1907 Term.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

To the Honorable A. N. Kepoi-kai, Judge of the Circuit Court of the Second Circuit, Territory of Hawaii.

Your Honor:
We the undersigned Grand Jurors of this Honorable Court, beg leave to make our final Report, as follows:

We have investigated the following cases, and have disposed of the same in the manner hereinafter set forth, to wit:

True Bills found and Indictments presented.

1. Territory of Hawaii v. Kazi Fikizo. Assault and Battery with a Weapon obviously and imminently dangerous to life.

2. Territory of Hawaii v. Nai Wai Burglary 1st Degree.

3. Territory of Hawaii v. Ah Tuck Burglary 1st Degree.

4. Territory of Hawaii v. Kazi Fikizo Assault with intent to Commit Murder.

5. Territory of Hawaii v. Fu-gioka Keichi. Assault with intent to Commit Murder.

6. Territory of Hawaii v. Ah Choen alias Akuna. Larceny 2nd Degree.

7. Territory of Hawaii v. Antonio Seyer. Assault and Battery with a weapon obviously and im-minently dangerous to life.

8. Territory of Hawaii v. Ramon de Concepcion. Mayhem.

In the following case, after due investigation we have declined to indict, viz

Territory of Hawaii v. David Taylor. Forgery.

Matters other than the above to which our special attention was called by your Honor, we wish to report as follows.

The charges against certain of the police officers were investigated, and we find that the methods proceeded by the head of the Police Department are very lax, and that discipline is not maintained in a manner compatible with the most efficient service expected of this very necessary body. We very strongly condemn the practice of temporary suspension as a punishment for drunkenness, more especially so when the offense has been repeated more than once.
The removal of Solomon Kawai-hoa as an officer of the Wailuku Police force is imperative as he has proved himself utterly incapable of the trust reposed in him. It should be demanded of the Sheriff by the proper authorities that in future all cases of drunkenness of officers shall be treated in the most severe manner, and that officers found in this condition should be summarily discharged.

The members of the Grand Jury as a body have seen for themselves the condition of the streets in the town of Wailuku and the filthiness of the surroundings which prevail on Market Street especially, and on all other roads throughout this town. This matter should be brought very forcibly before the road officials and the Sanitary Inspector, and they be compelled by the authorities to attend strictly to their duties.

In the matter of auditing the accounts and expenditures of public moneys, we find the work being carried on in as an efficient manner as is possible under the prevailing circumstances. It is well known that districts such as Molokai, Kahakulua, Keanae and Kau-po cannot receive the attention or inspection that other districts do which are more centrally located.

The fact that the road lunas in outlying districts who have the handling of Public funds are heavily bonded sufficiently guarantees the County against any financial loss.

The matter of closing, by the Pioneer Mill Co. of a certain road at Lahaina known as Puukoa, received the attention of a special Committee selected out of the members of the Grand Jury, con-
